

ISTANBUL AYDIN UNIVERSITY
MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2024

INTERNATIONAL CRISIS AD HOC COMMITTEE (ICAC) STUDY GUIDE

A Welcome Letter from the Secretary-General

Greetings everyone!

Firstly, I would like to welcome all of you to the first edition of İstanbul Aydın University's Model United Nations, an edition that will surely go down in history!

Secondly, as you dive into your study guides to prepare for the big day, I wish you a fruitful journey of research and learning. The world of Model United Nations is one of diplomacy, collaboration, and critical thinking, and I have no doubt that each of you will rise to the occasion with passion and intellect.

Thirdly, as you engage in debates, negotiate resolutions, and forge alliances, remember that you are not just representing countries, but embodying the spirit of global citizenship. The challenges we face today require innovative solutions, and it is through events like MUN that we can cultivate the leaders of tomorrow.

Fourthly, I encourage you to seize every opportunity to engage with your fellow delegates, share perspectives, and craft resolutions that reflect the diverse voices of our world. Whether you are an experienced delegate or new to the world of Model UN, this experience promises to be one of growth and camaraderie.

Lastly, on behalf of the entire team, I extend my sincerest wishes for your success. May your debates be dynamic, your resolutions impactful, and your memories lasting.

Welcome to IAUMUN 2024!

Welcome Letter from the Chairboard

Dear Delegates,

With a sense of urgency and anticipation, we extend a warm welcome to each distinguished delegate participating in the International Crisis Ad hoc Committee (ICAC). As Co-Chairs of this dynamic committee, we are eager to guide you through a simulation that will immerse you in the complexities of a high-stakes international crisis.

Our committee is faced with an unprecedented scenario: a newly emerging Jewish group has activated a stolen nuclear device, plunging the world into a state of heightened tension and insecurity. The challenges before us are multifaceted, requiring diplomatic finesse, military consideration, and a keen awareness of humanitarian concerns. Swift decision-making, collaboration, and innovative thinking are paramount to prevent catastrophic consequences.

The ad hoc nature of our committee adds an extra layer of complexity, demanding quick thinking and adaptability as we grapple with the immediate threat and navigate the intricate geopolitical landscape. This simulation is not merely an exercise in diplomacy; it is a test of your crisis management skills, strategic thinking, and ability to cooperate seamlessly under intense pressure.

As you engage with the intricacies of this crisis, we encourage each delegate to approach the simulation with a commitment to finding diplomatic solutions, fostering collaboration, and ensuring the safety and security of our global community. Get ready for an absorbing simulation that demands your skills and unwavering commitment to securing global safety amidst a looming doom.

We look forward to witnessing the creativity and dedication each delegate will bring to the ICAC.

Together, let us rise to the occasion and navigate these challenging waters with wisdom and resolve.

Best regards,

Ayberk Grm

Yazan Aaolu

Co-Chairs, International Crisis Ad hoc Committee (ICAC)

Topic: The Stolen Nuclear Device Crisis

I. Introduction

The International Crisis Ad hoc Committee (ICAC) will immerse delegates in an intense simulation focusing on a critical global emergency. Tensions will soar as a newly emerging Jewish group activates a stolen nuclear device, plunging the world into an unprecedented security crisis. Delegates will grapple with urgent diplomatic, military, and humanitarian challenges, requiring swift decision-making and collaboration to address the immediate threat.

II. Background Information

A. The Stolen Nuclear Device:

- Origin and Acquisition: Provide details about how the Jewish group obtained the nuclear device.
- Motivations: Explore the group's motives behind the activation and potential demands.
- Technology and Impact: Describe the technical aspects of the nuclear device and the potential consequences if detonated.

B. International Response:

- Immediate Reactions: Analyse how various nations and international organisations respond to the crisis.
- Diplomatic Challenges: Highlight potential diplomatic hurdles in coordinating a unified response.
- Security Council Involvement: Discuss the role of the United Nations Security Council in managing the crisis.

III. Committee Dynamics

A. Ad hoc Nature:

- Definition and Implications: Explore the concept of an ad hoc committee and how it differs from traditional committees.
- Decision-Making Challenges: Discuss the need for swift decision-making and the impact of the crisis's urgency on the committee's dynamics.

B. Collaboration and Cooperation:

- The Importance of Unity: Emphasise the necessity for collaboration to address the multifaceted challenges.
- Building Alliances: Discuss strategies for forming alliances and coalitions within the committee.

IV. Committee Agendas

A. Crisis Management:

- Immediate Actions: Explore possible immediate actions to mitigate the crisis and prevent further escalation.
- Crisis Communication: Address the importance of effective communication among nations to avoid misunderstandings and miscalculations.

B. Humanitarian Considerations:

- Refugee Crisis: Discuss potential displacement and humanitarian challenges resulting from the crisis.
- International Aid: Explore strategies for providing aid to affected regions and populations.

V. Potential Resolutions

A. Drafting Resolutions:

- Cooperative Frameworks: Encourage delegates to develop resolutions that foster international cooperation.
- Contingency Plans: Explore the need for contingency plans in case diplomatic efforts fail.
- Diplomatic Solutions: Highlight the importance of diplomatic negotiations in diffusing the crisis.
- Military and Security Measures: Discuss potential military and security measures to contain the threat.